DEDICATION

We proudly dedicate this 1961 year-book to our faculty, for their guidance and help in our high school years.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES
OFFICERS:

PRESIDENT	MR. JAMES WOGNUM
VICE-PESIDENT	MR. LAWRENCE KRASIN
SECRETARY	MRS. PEARL HILL
TREASURER	MR. DONALD GOE
AUDITOR	MR. JAMES M. GREENE

The function of the Board of Trustees of the Loring School for Girls is to maintain high educational standards for the school, to set policy, and to uphold the outstanding reputation our school has acquired throughout the years.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Seated: Messrs. Harold Knudsen, Donald Goe, William Bartz, Mrs. Pearl Hill, Messrs. James Wognum, James Greene, Lawrence Krasin, Mrs. Nathan Swift, Mr. Fred Mangler
Standing: Dr. Charles Krause, Mr. Robert Fitch, Dr. Raymond Wiegel, Mr. Thomas Burton. Absent: Mr. Ernest Payne

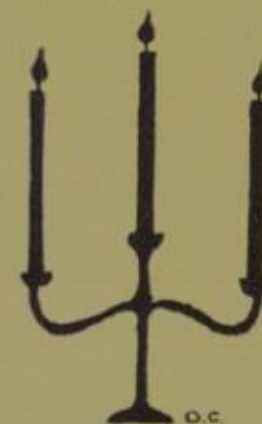

MOTHERS' CLUB

The Loring Mothers' Club plays a very essential part in the maintenance of our school. The attractive appearance of our school is entirely due to the efforts and interest of our mothers. In order to raise money for this purpose, they present an annual dinner dance and this year they sponsored a night at Drury Lane. The officers who presided over the monthly meetings were: Mrs. Robert Fitch, President; Mrs. Martin Rohe, 1st Vice President; Mrs. John J. Jansma, 2nd Vice President; Mrs. Thomas W. Burton, Jr., 3rd Vice President; Mrs. J. H. Forn, Treasurer; Mrs. Julian T. Thompson, Recording Secretary; Mrs. Donald F. Farmer, Corresponding Secretary.

Of course, what Loring girl can forget the beautiful Snow Ball presented each December by the Mother's Club!

STUDENT COUNCIL

Bronson Color Shop

Dear Diary,

It was hard to decide for whom to vote for Student Council officers. Our president is Gloria Swedie; secretary, Jean Fern; treasurer, Jonita Hazzard and Sgt.-at-arms, Dorothy Fitch. Our Student Council takes care of the problems of the student body and is run according to a constitution. This year the council presented a "flapper" dance, a Mom's and Dad's night, a family fun night entitled "Riverboat", and a slumber party. Sponsor of the Council is Miss Janet Lynch.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Dear Diary:

The National Honor Society is the goal of all of us at Loring, but to be a member we must have a 3.75 average, promote high scholastic standards, and provide leadership and service to our school. The officers this year are Lynn Grundstrom, President and Janice Erickson, Secretary-Treasurer.

Dear Diary;

What an evening! I shall never forget it! Our Mothers' Club gave us a Snow Ball at the Beverly Country Club December 16th. It was formal and everyone looked real "sharp." We had elected a queen and her court before the dance but no one knew the results. The climax of the evening came when Gloria Swedie was crowned Queen by Becky Manolis, last year's Snow Ball Queen. The Attendants were; Senior, Norine Michet; Junior, Janice Erickson; Sophomore, Madonna Farmer; and Freshman, Dorothy Weisend.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Dear Diary,

This year the Senior Class presented the play "Sweet Sally Brown" on January 13, 1961. The three act comedy took place in an exclusive girls' school in the East.

CAST

Tonya Tornabeni Sally Brown, our charming young heroine.
Dale Hutchinson . . . Ella Dupree, the principal at Haddon Hall.
Judy Krause Anastasia Cooke, a teacher at Haddon Hall.
Karen Nielsen Brooke Amory, from the British Isles.
Lynn Grundstrom Nydia Marble, who is "crazy" to act.
Virginia McEachern Monica Milner, of the upper set.
Norine Michet Dodie Bundy, who never gets enough to eat.
Linda Evans Sylvia Bond, a young Heiress
Dolores Miller .. Mrs. Camilla Bond, Sylvia's socially prominent mother.

Jonita Hazzard Delilah, a colored maid
Dorothy Fitch Ivadel Parker, a country girl.
Barbara Esau Mrs. Jimmy Parker, who has a score to settle.
Director Miss Winifred Wellman

DAD'S NIGHT

MOM'S NIGHT

Dear Diary,

Our long awaited Junior Winter Weekend at Northernaire finally arrived. Some of the sports the girls participated in were skating, swimming and skiing. All these things and many more helped to make the weekend an unforgettable one.

WASHINGTON TRIP

Dear Diary,

After 4 years of dreaming and planning we finally departed for our senior trip to New York and Washington, D. C. We saw all the sights of interest including a Broadway play, but the most memorable sights of all were those handsome midshipmen coming up the walk to Carvel Hall to escort us to the Annapolis Easter Hop.

SPEECH SOCIETY

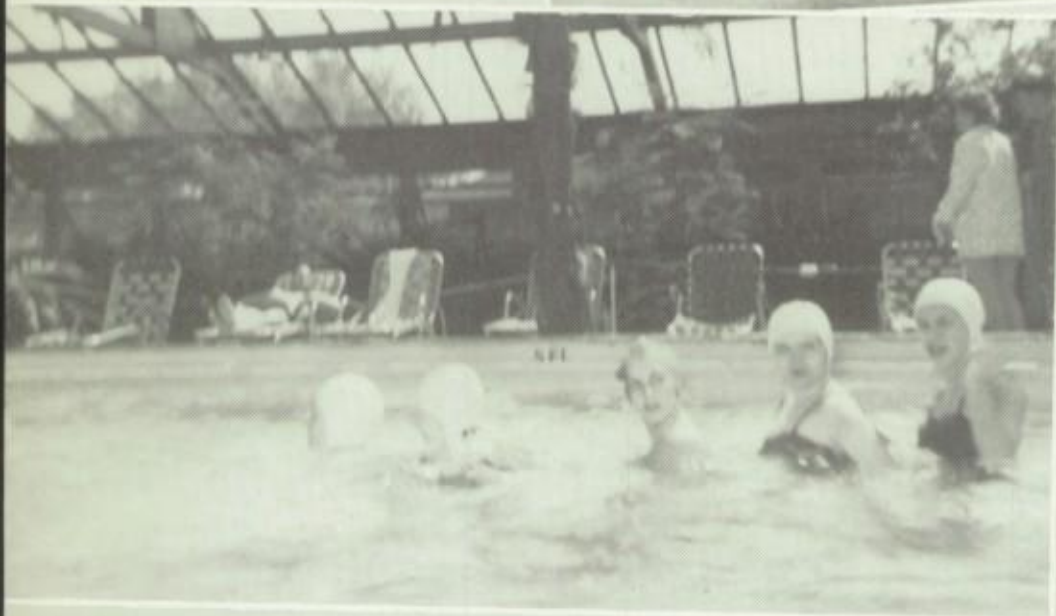

LORETTE BOARD

Deary Diary,

Just a note about our Lorette Board . . . the members supervise our athletic events and the awarding of school letters. The sponsor is Mrs. Stevens, our gym instructor.

THE WHEEL

Dear Diary,

I can remember our exciting trip to Wagon Wheel Resort as clearly as if it were yesterday. We spent a wonderful weekend swimming, horseback riding, and just plain having fun.

SENIOR BANQUET

Dear Diary,

Tonight was the last formal meeting of the school before graduation. We had mixed emotions as we listened to the reading of the Last Will and Testament and took part in the singing of Senior Song. The valedictorian and salutatorian gave marvelous speeches and our competent toastmaster, Lynn Grundstrom, conducted the program with poise and charm.

Dear Diary:

Now — the long awaited night — at last! The Junior-Senior Prom! The Juniors hired Tony Paige and his orchestra and the place is the Del Prado Hotel. I thought June 9th would never come! The Prom begins at nine and ends at twelve . . . and I have a new formal — just perfect for the occasion. More later, dear diary!
